on home politicians than in columns of argument; however skilfully written; but the two together can scarcely fail of producing some little effect at the Foreign Office, as the papers to hand by the French mail, state, that the impertinence displayed at Peking in the refusal to see Prince Alfred, has excited attention. A similar display of rudeness in the provinces goes at least to prove that neither was accidental, but that the Chinese are determined to press matters as far as they can without risking a declaration of war. By the way, we understand that the substance of Lord Clarendon's communication to the Foreign Office is also forwarded to those to whom it was addressed, to let them know that the Chinese are not to be trifled with.

Complainant's husband, who insisted that the told the truth, was fined $10 for telling lies.

Aboof Ramann, colored seaman, was drunk yesterday, and he went down Lascar

Row with a knife and kicked and abused

all the decent working people at their work.

He made a cut at one man with the knife, and kicked the eye (breaking the spectacle)

of an old shoemaker; when a policeman took him into custody. Defendant pleaded drunkenness and obliviousness, but Mr May had given him two months' hard labor, ordering him to pay 75 cents for the broken spectacles.

Wong Asking, a coolie, was caught leaving the Union Dock at Kowloon with a bag containing the Company's cement; and though he insisted it was a case of mistaken identity, he was sent to hard labor for three months.

BOOCHOW, 2nd December, 1869.

Our Correspondent notes:

"Yesterday afternoon the Foochow's messsenger, who was sent to Peking on the 2nd of last Chinese moon, with dispatches regarding the affair of H. E. Ting's son, has returned. As far as can be ascertained the little cheque has had the desired effect at Head Quarters, and so the affair is quietly hushed up. It is also reported that Li Fook, of the Chekiang Province, (brother of the well-known Li Fung-tang,) did also arrive at the Dragon Throne for Ting's son, and, like Taou-tze at Shanghai, and now acting Criminal Judge for this Province in the absence of H. E. Ying,"

"The amount of Promises collected in Hongkong and China between the 1st of November and early this morning Mandarins of all grades were carried out to the place to take part in the procession. The streets were lined on both sides with thousands of spectators anxiously awaiting the procession which passed into the City about 9 o'clock in the following succession:—The procession was headed by a man dressed in red, carrying a large yellow umbrella, who was followed by eight men clad in similar apparel, armed with halberds and spears and beating gongs. Next followed four large tablets covered with yellow cloth each carried by four men; on each tablet were inscriptions setting forth the good qualities Pang-ta-jen was possessed of.
Behind these came 120 men, carrying 96 pairs of red boards with gilt inscriptions enumerating the different offices H. E. Pang held during his life time, from a district Magistrate to a Prime Minister. After these followed a chair carried by eight men, the chair being beautifully decorated with red, white, and blue cloth, and inside was hung the portrait of Pang-wen-chang, before which stood two burning candles.
If the artist who painted the likeness, succeeded in faithfully delineating the features of His Excellency, he was certainly a vene-tial looking old man with a long white beard and pleasing countenance. Next followed a chair covered with green cloth and decorated with yellow fringes, the inside upholstered with red and gold embroiled cushions on which was standing a small tablet with Pang-ta-jen's name.
This chair was carried by 16 bearers in blue and the usual Chinese hats with a blue feather. After the chair walked a beaut

This application must be made to the Postmaster General of the Colony or Colony in which the Order was originally drawn.

13.—Repayment whether of an original, renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the advice has been communicated to the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14.—Payment of an Order must be obtained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn; for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July, otherwise the Order will become lapsed, and a new Order (for which a second Commission, to be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become necessary.

15.—If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month, after that in which it was drawn, for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—albeit the Money will be forfeited, unless under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn will be prompted to allow it.

16.—After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, is made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Post Office, the Postmaster General of the Country or Colony in which the original order occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss.

17.—No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.—Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used by "mercantile" men, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai, or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the possibility of increasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

20.—For LETTERS: 20 cents each half-an-ounce weight. By Command,

F. W. MITCHELL, Postmaster General, General Post Office, Hongkong, 22nd August, 1868.

It is hereby notified for general information that under the provisions of a Treasury Warrant, which will come into operation on the 1st October next, correspondence addressed to Constantinople will be forwarded at the following reduced Rates of Postage, which must be paid in advance, viz.:—

For LETTERS: 20 cents each half-an-ounce weight. For NEWSPAPERS, PACKETS OF PATTERNS, AND BOOKS:

2 cents each two ounces up to half-pound, and 8 cents for every additional half-pound.

F. W. MITCHELL, Postmaster General, General Post Office, Hongkong, 22nd August, 1868.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS AND BOOK PACKET SYSTEMS EXTENDED TO THE COAST PORTS AND JAPAN.

It is hereby notified for general information that on the 1st October next, and thenceforward Money Orders will be issued at this Office and at the Agencies thereof at Shanghai and Yokohama on all the Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for amounts not exceeding £10, at the rate of Exchange Current for Each Mail, and charged with Commission according to the following Scale, viz.:—

For sums not exceeding £2, 12
Above £2 and not exceeding £5, 24
" 55 " 7, 42
" 57 " 10, 48

2.—No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.—Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, shewing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also, at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter or Payee, if a firm, the ordinary title will be sufficient, if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers," will suffice; but the mere term Messrs., such as "Messrs. Rivington," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the name of the persons composing it, such as "Carton & Co." is inadmissible.

6.—The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are received.

7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some Person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.—The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name, will be allowed, whether such binding is in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

Letters posted after 7 A.M. on the 14th December will not be forwarded unless the "late fee" as well as the postage is prepaid.

Boxed Boxes containing the correspondence of Box Holders will be received at the window set apart for the purpose, on the East Side of the building.

All correspondence for places to which prepayment is compulsory must be prepaid in Hongkong Postage Stamps.

Inadequately-stamped Letters addressed to the United Kingdom will be sent on, charged with a fine of One Shilling in addition to the postage.

be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints, markers (whether of paper or otherwise,) in the case of Books, and so short whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appended thereto.

Every Book packet must be either without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sealed, nor any sealed envelope whatever;

the name and address of the sender is however not only permitted but recommended, so that if the cover comes off, or for any other reason the packet cannot be forwarded, it may be returned.

No packet must exceed two feet in length, breadth or depth; exceeding these dimensions it cannot be forwarded through the Post.

AS REGARDS PACKETS.

They must not be of intrinsic value. This rule excludes all articles of a saleable nature, and indeed whatever may have a value of its own, apart from its mere use as a pattern; and the quantity of any material sent ostensibly as a pattern must not be so great that it can fairly be considered as having on this ground an intrinsic value.

There must be no writing or marks other than the address of the person for whom the packet is intended and that of the sender, a trade mark and numbers, and price of the articles; otherwise the packet will be detained or forwarded charged as an unpaid letter.

The patterns must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Samples, however, of seeds, drugs, and so forth, which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen or other material, tied at the neck; bags so closed that they cannot readily be opened, even though they be transparent, must not be used for this purpose. Non-compliance with this rule will also subject the packet to be detained or forwarded as an unpaid letter.
